There will be time, there will be time
 To prepare a face to meet the faces that you meet;
 There will be time to murder and create,
 And time for all the works and days of hands
 That lift and drop a question on your plate,
 Time for you and time for me,
 And time yet for a hundred indecisions,
 And for a hundred visions and revisions

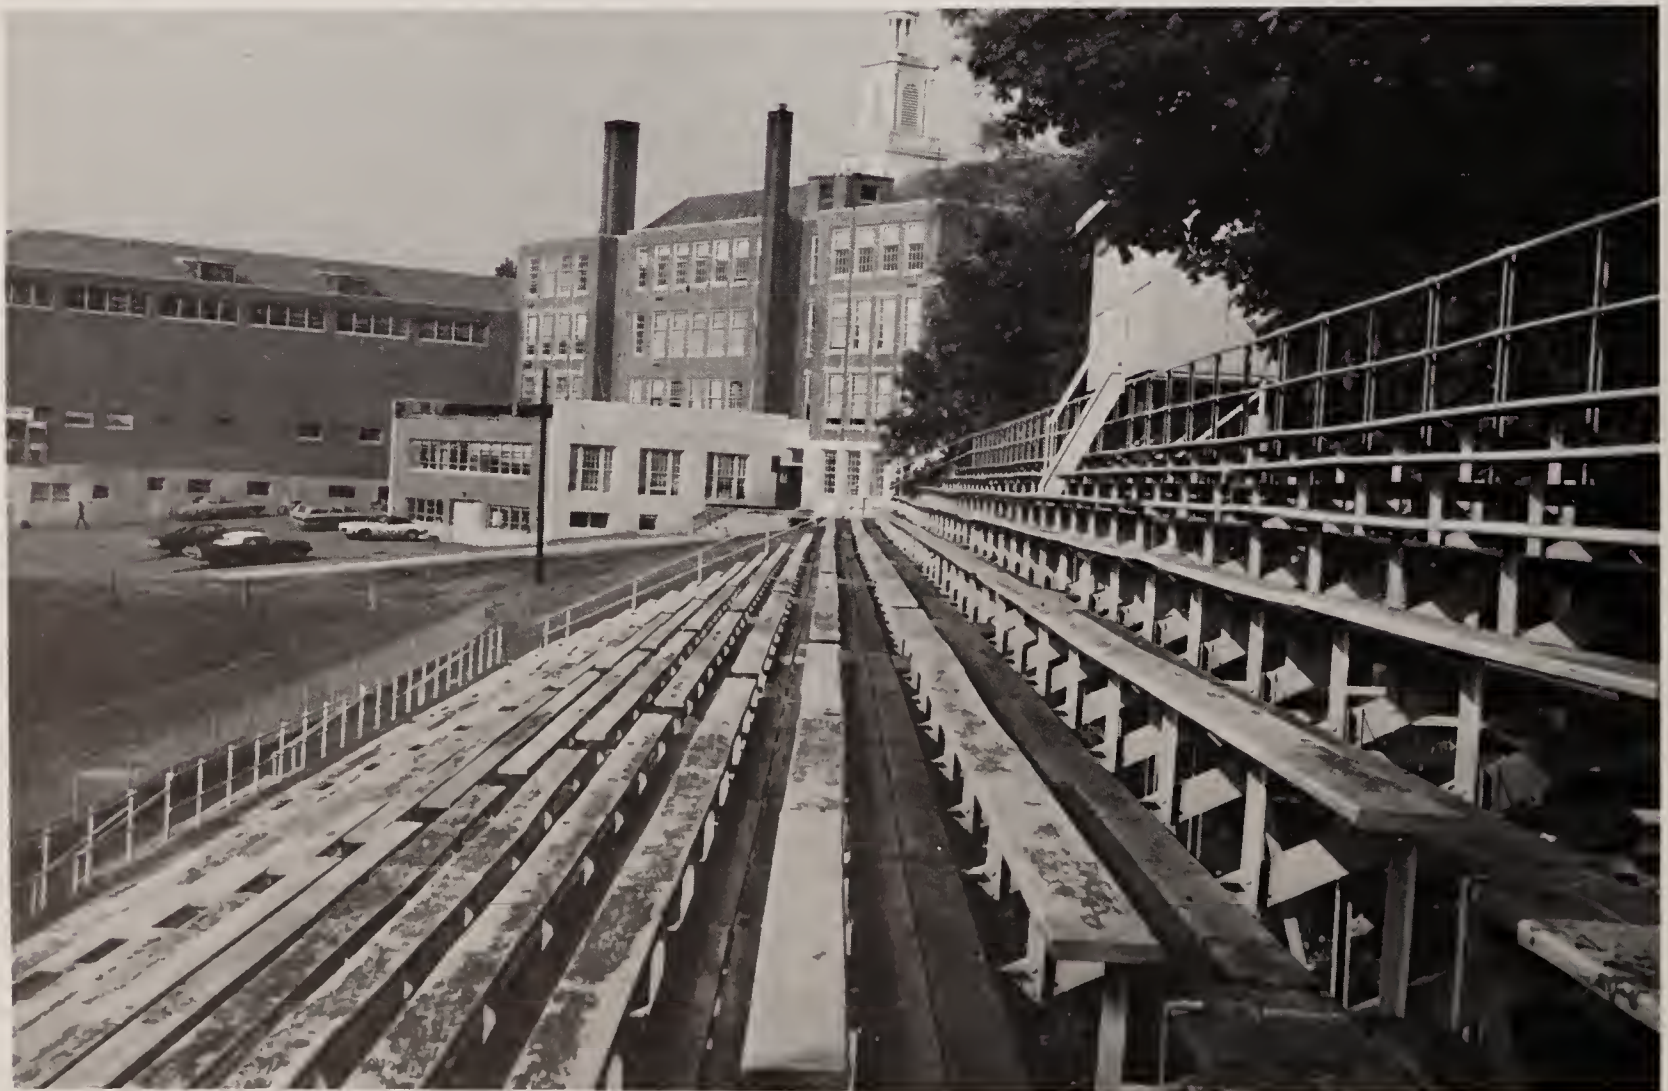

...

—T. S. Eliot

The door is open—

before us . . .

lies confusion;

behind us . . .

peace.

Our enmities

become obscured

and our friends become a shadow of the past.

Now our roads must part,

each to go where he wishes.

Each to experiment,

to develop,

to triumph.

Reflect

The first word was welcome,

the last is farewell.

1971 RED & BLACK

If you can make one paper of those six pages
 And sell it at a profit, not a loss,
 And this done, start again on next month's issue
 And never cease your search for all that's new.
 If you can force your peers to submit one item
 Or find someone whose view has not been heard,
 And so hold on when there is nothing in you
 Hoping Mr. Joyce will say, "Good Job!"
 If you can talk with all and still be neutral,
 Or walk with all the Administration, nor lose the student touch.
 If neither your subscribers nor the Star can hurt you,
 If both sides count with you, but none too much;
 If you can meet the everpresent deadlines
 With thirty days' worth of exciting news,
 Yours is the Red and Black and all you've made it,
 And, what is more, you'll be an editor my son!

The staff is commonly heard to say "Gee—this is great . . . without the last line."

NATIONAL THESPIANS

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The 1970-71 edition of the Student Council, consisting of five delegates from each class and its four officers, spent much of the year deciding when and where the next meeting was to be held, and which Thursday was E & D. Under the guidance of Mr. French, the four officers: Steve Lanigan—President, Brad Gay—Vice-President, Mike Shiang—Treasurer, and Jackie DeMars—Secretary, finally pulled together with the rest of the council to meet their responsibility as representatives of the entire student body. Although their achievements could hardly be considered as major breakthroughs, much time and energy was spent by all members in assisting the administration and in helping the school in general. The council strove for communication among all, and strongly advocate that "None of us is so smart as all of us."

STUDENT COUNCIL

A.V. SQUAD

The A.V. Squad consists of a dedicated group of students. Everyday the members of the staff endure the delicate ordeal of hurtling equipment through the crowded halls, and the tricky task of delivering equipment to the right rooms at the right time—right boys? But the staff has an even greater responsibility—they must aid with repair and operation of equipment during and after the school day. Without the assistance of these conscientious, but elevator-loving students, the school day would be far less interesting for the rest of the school.

MATH CLUB

This year, the math club is headed by Miss Allou, a vivacious young teacher who believes in making math interesting and fun for the club. As a result, the spirit is good. Having hosted the first meet of the year, the club was able to get to know many of the competitors from the surrounding towns. Besides math and newer techniques like "synthetic division", the club can explore different high schools and experience other school systems especially at away-meets. Past activities include a slide rule course for all interested chemistry students and available help for math exams and contests. The team usually spends its Monday afternoons on some of the more catchy problems which interest them. Math is not just "problems". It is curiosity and creativity.

WHSR-FM

"This is WHSR-91.9 on your FM band beginning broadcasting operations for the day. WHSR is a 10 watt non-commercial educational station . . ."

These familiar words with a little luck can be heard all the way to Roxbury, Mass. every Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon. Each week, from 3:00 to 6:30 p.m. students enjoy(?) the new experience of broadcasting their own 45 minute show. Added attractions are news by Chet and David, live sports coverage, Jazz and Rock shows. WHSR also brings you town-wide events, including town meetings. And remember, pull don't push!

GERMAN CLUB

The German Club, which was founded this year, included the parties and alimentary experiences that no foreign language club should be without. An Oktoberfest, a Weihnachtsfest, a Deutsches Abendessen, a visit to Jacob Wirth's, and "Tivoli," the statewide German party at B.U., were an integral part of the activities. Everyone knows that skiing is a German sport which prompted our ski trip to Vermont for an entire weekend.

Some of the activities of the organization consisted of trips to the Busch Reisinger Museum, the Goethe Society, and unique cultural events. There was also a concert lecture by the modern German composer Karlheinz Stockhausen at the New England Conservatory of Music.

FRENCH CLUB

This year's French Club, presided over "plus ou moins" by Dorothy Elliott, gathered together in various homes to listen to the experiences of those fortunate enough to have visited la belle France. From these people we learned of the customs of the French, such as diving into park fountains and eating two-hour-long dinners. We were inspired by these speakers to seek typical French activities such as lectures and a movie (with English subtitles if at all possible!) to conclude the year. Nothing short of a blizzard exchange "Bon . . . um . . . soirs" each month. The officers, including Becky Osgood as Vice-President and Rich Swanson as Treasurer, offer Mr. Trottier a loud "merci" for his work as advisor this year.

The Club Espanol wanted a busy year, a year that would involve its members in a series of activities relating to the Spanish language and culture. We must have succeeded; there has been quite a turnout to each session.

Meeting every other Thursday night at a different member's home, we have tried tacos and enchiladas, (complete with Alka-Seltzer for dessert), beaten a Pinata into submission, and exhausted Boston's water supply at the Casa Mexico.

When we haven't been feeding our faces, we've been planning a film. It is a Spanish "Perils of Pauline", including Zorro and the Frito Bandito. We will coordinate the filmed sequences with a taped dialogue.

We've also had other students show us their slides of Mexico and of Spain, and we hope to sell enchiladas at one of the sports events.

LES TROUBADOURS

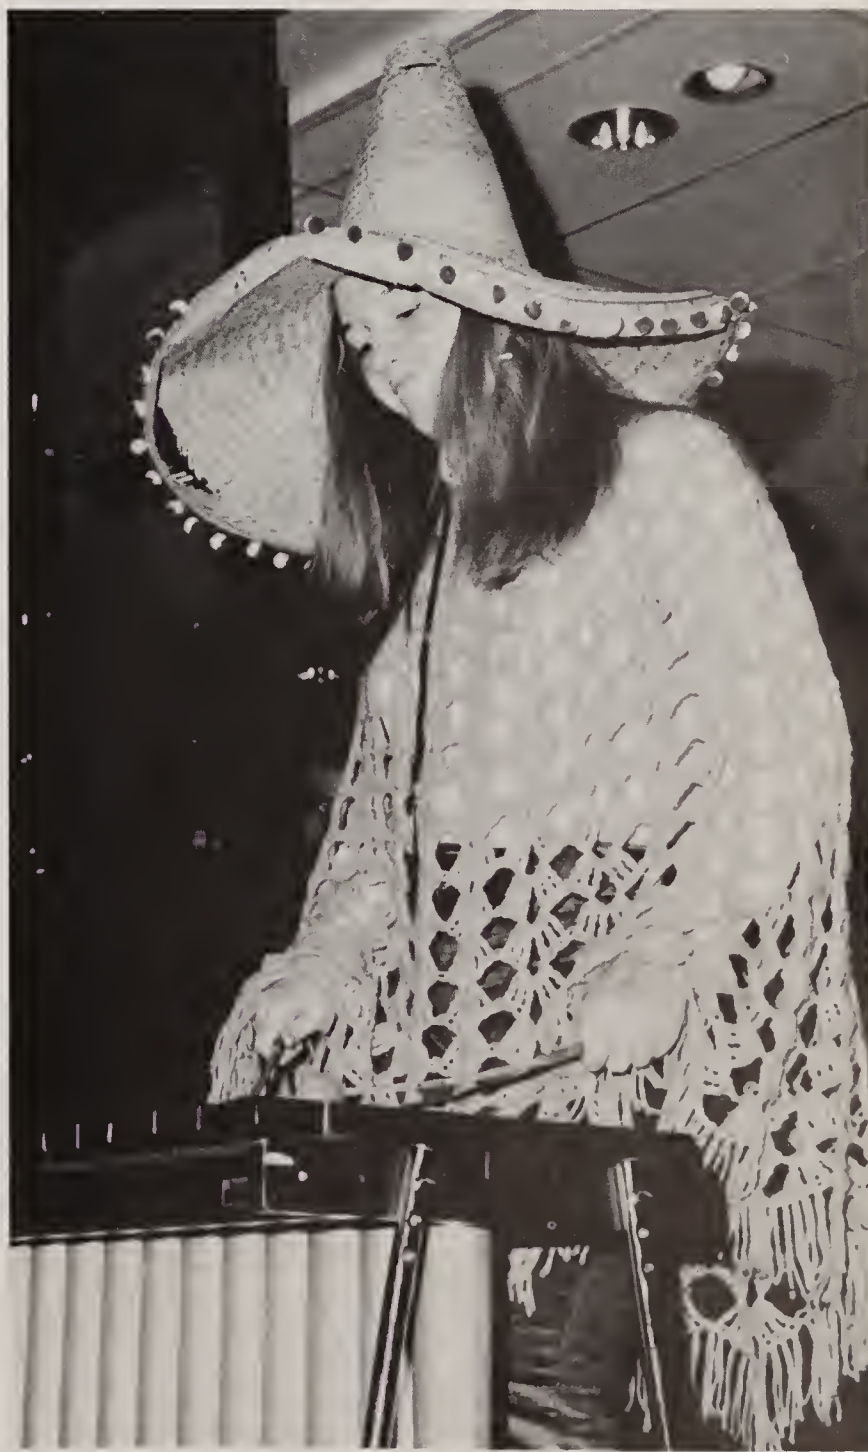

Hours of rehearsing, learning new songs (and a few old ones!), trying to find a beret, and then—Voilà! Les Troubadours! Even though we were minus a bass player, Troubadours managed to carry on in the old "Dominique" tradition. This fall we added a little international flair to the fairs held by the United Nations and the International Institute. We charmed the members of Delta Kappa Gamma by singing their sorority song and surprised the Republican ladies with our rendition of Jingle Bells (complete with sound effects!). Well, Mrs. T., looks like we've had another fun-filled (but confusing) year. One announcer, whom I shall not mention; a gal, who puts the oomph into "Mademoiselle"; and one male soloist, who can never remember the words. Bon chance et au revoir.

LOS COMPANEROS

Have you seen a large sombrero walking around on two tiny feet lately? You've just found one of Los Compañeros, Winchester High's Latin American music group. When they're not hiding under sombreros, Compañeros can usually be found taking marimbas, maracas, claves, and other assorted percussion instruments out of Mrs. Thistlethwaite's car, or frantically searching for the music to "Tijuana Taxi". Attendance fluctuates widely at rehearsals and no one can ever figure out where the next performance is, but Los Compañeros are always happy to play—as long as there is an audience. As with all performers, the Compañeros spend most of their time waiting for THE CALL. And when it comes, they move—PRONTO.

DEBATE TEAM

After its dubious start, the debate club developed into a dynamic group of devoted debaters (plus a few unwillings dragged out of the corridor by our determined-despite-the-odds leader, Miss Kenworthy).

After demolishing long-standing friendships through heated arguments within the group, we fearlessly plunged into the task of taking on other debate teams in the area. As a result of these excursions, we are proud to announce that W.H.S. is tops in the snow-job department.

Many obstacles were encountered in gaining verbal agility—just ask Cathi how hard it is to keep quiet when the opposition is twisting the facts.

However, with Miss Kenworthy's constant encouragement and helpful hints, the group managed to produce a semblance of intelligence while delving into the crucial issues of our time-capital punishment, abortion, welfare reform, and much more.

Demosthenes, beware!

SKI CLUB

Bad weather instead of bad organization has fouled the Winchester Ski Team this year. Faithful members can be seen at Woburn on Tuesday and Wednesday nights. This year the club has branched out from being a racing club to both a racing and pleasure skiing club. Some meets for the racing season have been scheduled. Let's just hope the weather stays cold. Ski club officials are; President, Steve McDavitt and Vice-President, Greg Nichols.

CURTAIN & CUE

Curtain & Cue is the student-organized, dramatic club of Winchester High School. As with the majority of such groups, it is the actors who seem to work the hardest and who receive the most glory. Along with the large body of actors, Curtain & Cue also depends upon costume designers and seamstresses, make-up committee, a set design and construction crew, lighting directors, prop men, publicity and sales management, and as faculty advisor, Mrs. McKay. All are indispensable in the staging of a production.

Curtain & Cue presents three shows during the school year. Three one-act plays in the fall, a major three-act production in March, and a third presentation in the spring.

GRIDIRON GRIT

A championship year is a hard act to follow but the 1970 gridiron Sachems came through in fine fashion posting a 7-1-1 record and finishing a solid second in the Middlesex League standings. After dropping the opening game to Wakefield, Coach Manny Marshall's footballers dug in and captured seven of the remaining eight contests. Against arch-rival Woburn, Winchester exploded for five touchdowns, in crushing the Tanners 36-0. Ben Dolan had an exceptional year as he amassed a scoring total of 112 points and was named to the All-League and All-Scholastic teams. Mike Deshler, Phil Sampson, and Bob Wolfe were outstanding in a year which was characterized by strong team play. With a year's experience behind them, the returning Sachem lettermen should be primed for Winchester's bid to recapture the league crown in 1971.

During the 1970 season the Winchester varsity soccer club picked up where it had left off the year before—and then some. Coach Bouley's Sachems moved into undisputed possession of first place early in the schedule and never relinquished the top spot. Only a narrow loss to powerful Lexington late in the season marred an otherwise perfect record as the booters compiled a 9-1 slate and captured the Middlesex League crown. Aggressive play and teamwork proved to be the lubricants of Bouley's Winning Machine. Gary Finke and Jim Beck provided a consistent 1-2 scoring punch and Bob Salvucci was a stalwart on defense. Mike Stevenson tended goal for the club and came through with many clutch saves en route to recording five shut-outs. Next year's squad should again be in the thick of the scramble for league honors.

PEP PEP HURRAH!

Hey, you guys!! . . . Anybody got any ideas for a skit?? Let's get those signs up by Wednesday!!??? "Meg, help!!" . . . "Who can get her car for the game?!" . . . If you plan to go to breakfast, and . . . "Will you make an announcement for the meeting?" . . . We're all going to wear our uniforms for . . . "Let's start a cheer!" . . . "I can't wait till Thanksgiving, but . . ." "Didi, we'll have to get more paper . . . did you paint those signs in your living room?" . . . Thank y-o-u Mr. Bickford!!

Na-na-na-na, Hey High School, GOOD BYE . . .

The senior girls of '71 were excited when football season finally began and hated to see it end.

—playing in the rain, wearing sweat pants that just don't fit, ice cream sodas if the ball hits the flag.

—letting the first name slip.

—“Lets chuck chickies at the Beavers.”

—“Did the fast fantastic field hockey foes beat the super soccer stars?”

—playing the faculty and getting SWAMPED!

Although our record was 4-3-4, our pride in playing for Miss Collins pushed us to our greatest effort of the season: beating undefeated Lexington.

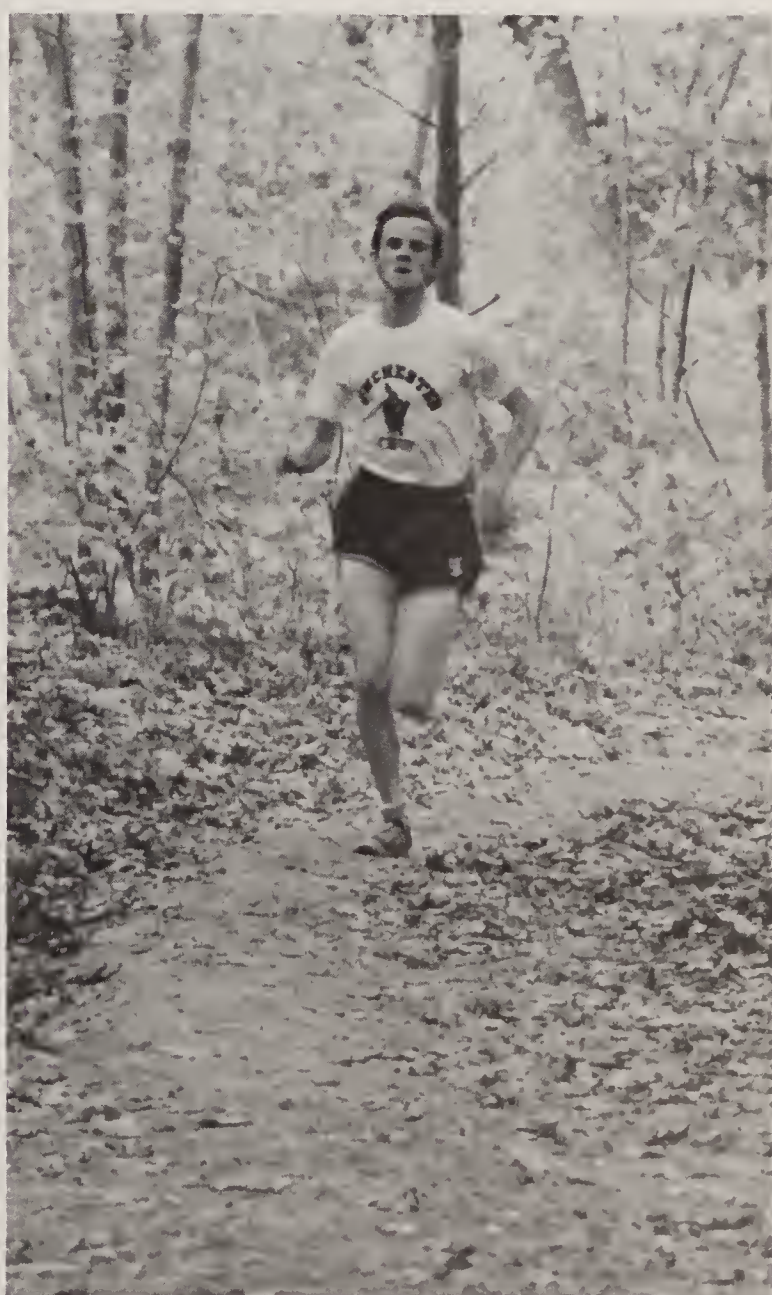

HYPER-KINETIC HARRIERS

For the second straight year a winning season eluded the Winchester cross country club. However, the campaign was highlighted by some strong individual performances. Against Melrose the Sachems, co-captained by Bruce Hill and Doug De Natale, slushed through mud and rain to their sole victory of the year. Terry Quinn, who proved to be a consistent performer throughout the season, copied first place. A lack of depth hampered the Sachems in their other meets and proved especially decisive in their narrow losses to Concord and Belmont. Next year's co-captains, Terry Quinn and Greg Johnson, will be flanked by a host of veterans and some newcomers who should help Winchester to hit its stride in the upcoming season.

CHEERLEADERS

Can you believe we all made it through tryouts? Hockey, football, soccer, track, basketball . . . next year we'll cheer for the debating club. Everyone try to make it to practice by at least 3:00! Extra loud now; use your diaphragm voices. Really now, girls, we can't decorate eighty houses!! Last time we'll ever march on this field . . . high left, left, left . . . Easy on Mr. Bouley; he's not too sure about us GIRLS. All right you guys, everyone change . . . you know who is at practice. Do we have to take gym? Emergency!! My third megaphone just broke!! Religious?? We go to church every Saturday. Sachems we love you!!

TUMBLETTES

1st game, "Don't cry!" . . . Well, you see, we took a vote and ummmm . . . we'll never forget: our Saturday morning breakfasts, blueberry pancakes . . . Cold what??? . . . "Wanna leave now?" . . . "Knee it, you guys!" . . . Majorettes, our famous kick line . . . "R-e-a-d-y? Turn!!" . . . "Alright you guys . . . This is it!" . . . our frozen mascots . . . The balcony practices . . . The MUD . . . "Is there a doctor in the house?" . . . the birthdays . . . "Spin, Joannie, Spin!" . . . The line at the punch bowl . . . "Anybody got a joke?" . . . "Do you have a different routine every week?" Last game, don't cry! . . . and thank God for those benchwarmers!! "SMILE!!"

Thanks so much for the great year we had together. All the luck in the world to Gail and Elly. Thanks also to Mr. Marshall, the coaches, our advisor, and the fantastic football team for a fabulous year.

HOOPMEN

The Sachem High Basketball team, paced by All-Scholastic Captain Bob Bigelow, finished the season with an even 10-10 record. Although this year was mainly a rebuilding one, with only one starter returning, Winchester completed its season in fourth place in the Middlesex League.

Bob Bigelow became the first player in the school's history to reach the magic number of 1000 pts. He finished his career with 1003 pts.

This year four seniors leave. These include Bob Bigelow, Tom James, "S" Mulloy, and Paul Landry, but the "Big Fellas," Dick Powers, Dana Peterson, Bob Wolfe, Bob Hicks, Tony Adams, and "Puck," will all be back next season.

GYMNASTICS

The "sagyms" this year pulled out an outstanding record as compared to the last few years. They completed the season with a 3-7 record, and a 7-5 overall record. This was due to the all around performance by Capt. Eric Peterson, and solid routines by John Wilson, Paul Tonello and Tim Ardagno.

The "gymmies" depended highly on Eugene Fontaine, Eric Strout, Jay Zerwekh, Robbie Thomas, Dave Mucci, and Joe Saylor to constantly come up with the high scores.

Expert coaching by Bob Albright and Steven Hood made the team what it was. A bigger and even better team is hoped for next year.

Row 1: Coach Hood, E. Strout, J. Wilson, T. Ardagno, E. Peterson, P. Tonello, D. Mucci, Coach Albright. Row 2: R. Murphy, K. Torolone, J. Saylor, R. Thomas, S. Blasi, J. Cleary, N. Keating, S. Halvison. Row 3: T. Treflon, J. Zerwekh, E. Fontain, J. McCabe.

It's hard to forget a team like this
Whose Hawkeyes often shot and missed
The game plan thrown right over the fence
I'm sure we often looked quite dense.

Bruised knees, broken fingers and lots of flu
Made us say, "What can we do?"
The Sachemettes and their fearless coach
Really deserved a diamond broach.

Back in hockey we made Lexington fall
They lost their image of unbreakable dolls
Jane and her girls were not very pleased
In Basketball they'd whip us with ease.

We have a coach whose name is Jan
She has to be our biggest fan
A winner, regardless of the score,
Thanks a lot and best wishes galore.

THE JUMPSTERS

Row 1: T. Monahan, B. Klemer, S. Bates, E. Brennan, L. Mears, T. Ober, D. Duffy, J. Downes.
 Row 2: Miss Collins, Coach, P. Knowlton, R. Cincotta, A. Kelleher, M. Bellivue, R. Fahey. Row
 3: W. Irving, L. Abbot, M. Fernald, L. Fitzgerald, S. Knight, J. Lasberger. Row 4: M. O'Donnel,
 C. O'Conner, T. Johns, K. Levinson, B. Wolfe.

Inexperience took a heavy toll as 1970 Winchester matmen, coached by Ted Benton and Francon Tom, managed only two victories (over Woburn and Malden) against nine defeats. A number of fine individual performances, however, took some of the sting out of team losses. Larry McHugh amassed the biggest point total while team captain Chris Osgood and Mark Lombardi captured the most matches. Prospects for next season look bright as returning lettermen should provide Winchester with the depth and experience needed to make the team a league power.

GRAPPLERS

THE MSL CHAMPS

After only its third official season, the most unusual-to-say-the-least team to hit W.H.S., compiled an 8-2 record and captured the Middlesex League championship. The success of the team was made possible by: practices in the coffee house, the balconies, and sometimes even in the gym; heart-to-hearts which often kept judges waiting, talented (?) seniors; numerous juniors; flaky sophomores; one nutty coach; and 99% GUTS and 1% talent. Special thanks to the A.V. boys for making us all T.V. stars. Things to forget: North Reading, dismounts from the beam into the unevens, videotapes. Things to remember; our record and our coach.

Row 1: S. O'Grady, B. Osgood, K. Stiles, M. Miller, K. Lisberger, P. Spears. Row 2: S. McGilvary, M. O'Grady, M. Cogliano, M. Duschen, A. Cogliano, Coach J. Rosazza. Row 3: L. Brittan, N. Higgins, D. Bowker, V. Hanes, B. Kade.

PUCKSTERS

The Pucksters greatly improved this year finishing with a 5-8-5 record, placing sixth in the Middlesex League. The team had a very erratic year, beating the powers of the league, while losing other games by only one or two goals.

Exceptional defense included Denis O'Donnel in the nets, with Ben Dolan and Tom Beldon at the points. Leading scorers were Paul Whitney 17 pts., George Evans 13 pts., Ben Dolan 12 pts., Rick Murphy 12 pts., and Jack Brennan 11 pts.

Coaches Ted Kelly and John Stableford were pleased with the team's performance and look forward to be a leading power in the Middlesex League.

Row 1: P. Murphy, D. O'Donnell, P. Sampson, J. Beck, B. Dolan, C. Mackenzie, M. Stevenson, D. Errico. Row 2: E. Williams, J. McGoldrick, B. McGoldrick, T. Beldon, M. Sanford, E. Pierce, D. O'leary, P. Whitney, J. Brennan, G. Evans, D. Frongillo, R. Murphy, C. Emery, Coach J. Stableford, Coach T. Kelly.

TRACKMEN

Row 1: M. Deschler, C. Emery, P. Fitzgerald, K. Woodward, M. O'Brian, B. Arnold, B. Babin.
Row 2: D. DeNatale, K. Curtis, J. Geary, L. Manoogian. Row 3: D. Leland, P. Pacetti, T. Quinn.

For those of you who wonder how anyone can run through a snow storm in ten-below temperatures, in a set of red underwear, I have news for you, neither do we. Despite all of our problems, including a 1-9 record, this year's edition of the Winter Track men had several outstanding performances. John Procopio and Mike Deschler had strong performances in the State Meet, while Bruce Hill, Charlie Tatarian, and Terry Quinn had great races week after week.

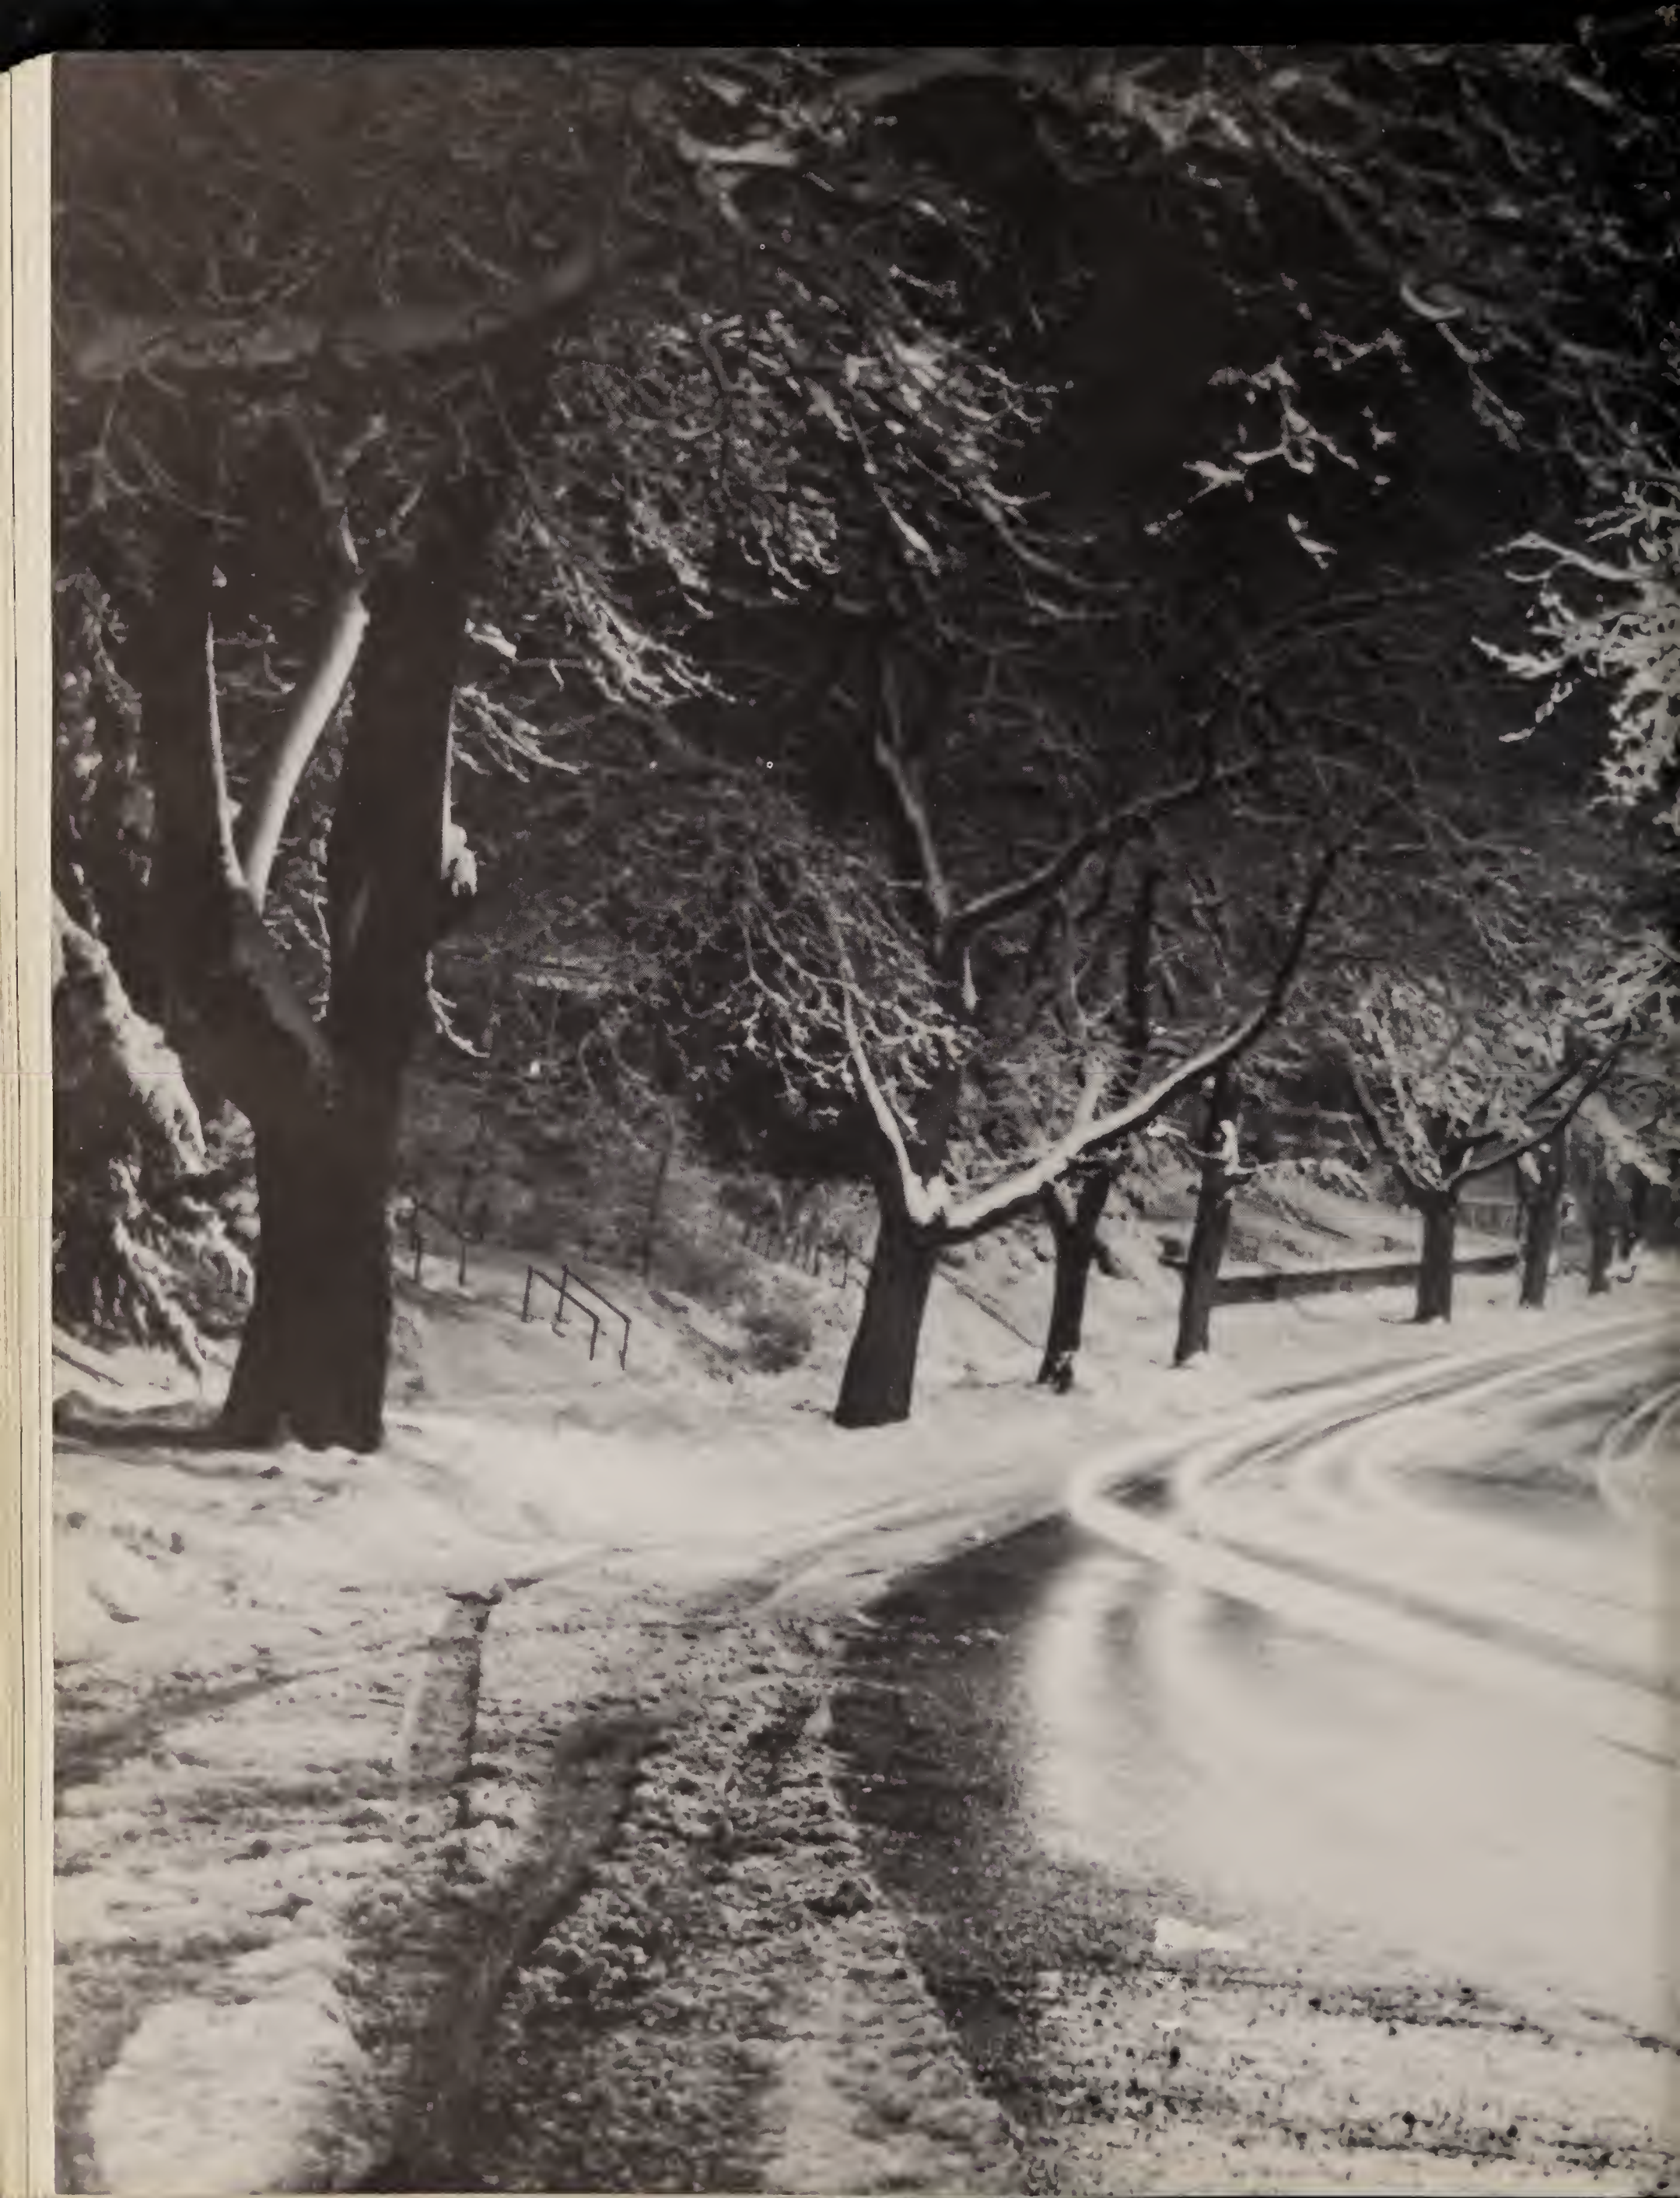

Perhaps next year with the greatly improved facilities of the new high school, the Track men can challenge the Middlesex leadership.

SILHOUETTES

Take me disappearin' through the smoke rings of my mind, down the foggy-ruins of time.

Far past the frozen leaves,
the haunted, frightened trees,
Out to the windy beach
Far from the twisted reach of crazy sorrow.

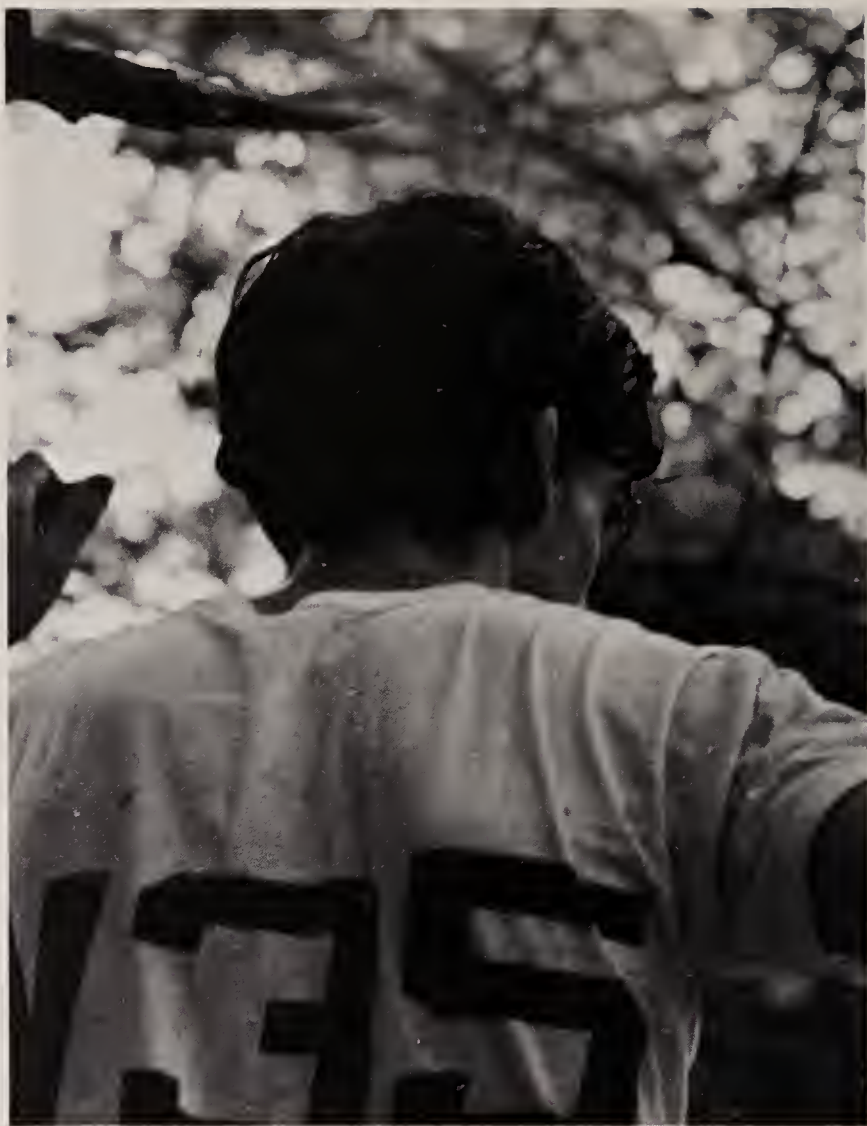

Yes, to dance beneath the diamond sky
With one hand wavin' free,
Silhouetted by the sea,
Circled by the circus sands,

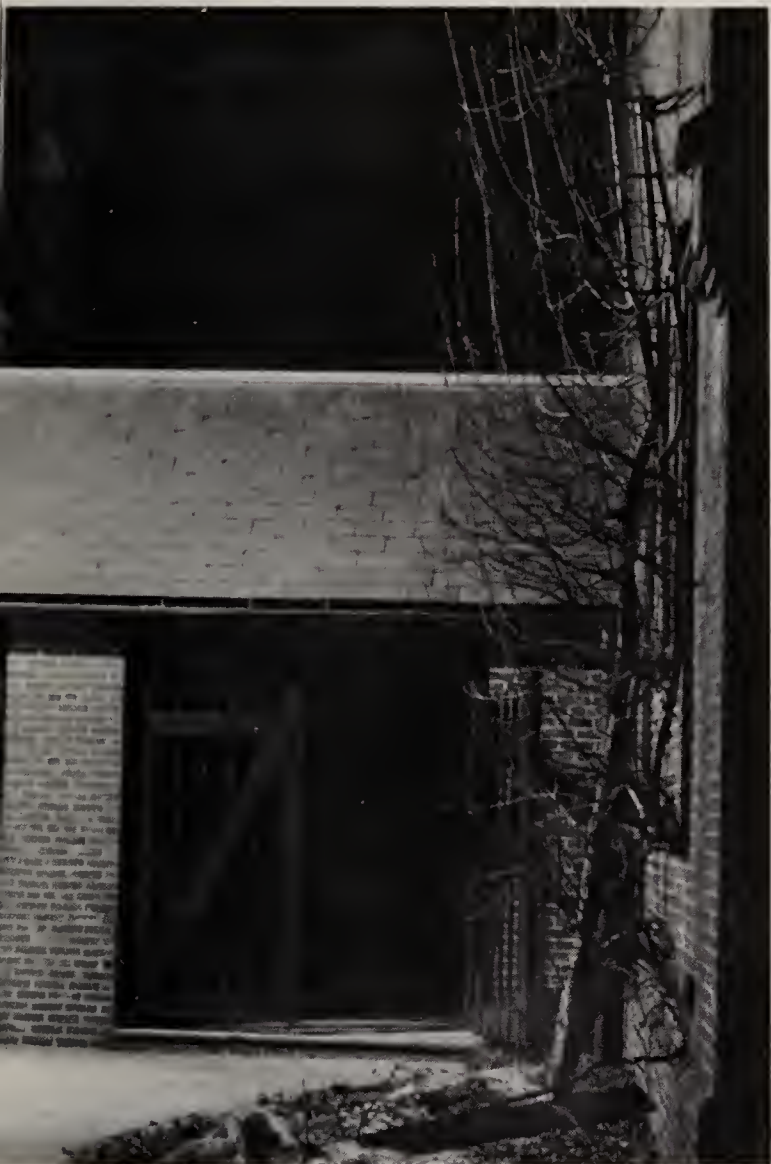

With memory and fate
Driven deep beneath the waves
Let me forget about today until tomorrow.
